COURT OF HONOR HELD BY SCOUTS

Troop 12 of Albany held a Court of Honor in the auditorium of Marin School on the evening of December 20, with Assistant Scoutmaster Verne Easter as chairman. Ed Hanahan, representing Albany Post 292, of the American Legion, welcomed those present, and awarded Merit Badges to Scouts Don Binninger, James Diani, Don Easter, Dick Miller, Bob Muir, Jack Nahmens, Floyd Weinberg, and Don Ziegenfuss. Three Tenderfeet, Stanley Ashow, David Haines, and Robert Spry, were invested with their badges and formally inducted into the troop. Ben Wilson received his Second Class Rank, and First Class badges were presented to Alan Jelten and Floyd Weinberg.

Advancement of Bob Muir from First Class to Star Scout, and of Dick Miller from Star to Life Scout was handled by Scoutmaster Walter Miller. Special awards were made as follows: Patrol Leader of Rattlesnake Patrol to Floyd Weinberg; year stars as members of Troop 12 to Don Binninger, James Liani, Bill Hastings, Skippy Hawkins, Bob Nelson, Dave Stacy and Bob Smith; and perfect attendance pins to Don Binninger, James Diani, Skippy Hawkins, and David Stacy.

After the Court was closed, refreshments were served to the Scouts and their guests by Troop 12 Mother's Club, which has always participated actively in the Courts of Honor and other formal meetings, as well as at other times throughout the years.

Income Tax Forms to Go Out On Jan. 1

Income tax forms for the reporting of 1945 tax liability will be mailed to taxpayers of record soon after January 1st, Acting Collector of Internal Revenue Paul V. Doyle said today in San Francisco.

Approximately five million income tax forms have been received by the San Francisco Office. Another carload is en route. Some eleven million income tax forms will be supplied the First California District (all California north of the Kern County line) for the filing of returns by the two million persons in this district, required to report to the government on their earnings.

EXPANSION PLANNED AT ALBANY 'Y'

Expansion is planned for the Albany YMCA building as the fifteenth anniversary of its groundbreaking ceremonies approached, it is announced by Elmer Coble, executive secretary, who said that the present structure may be enlarged to three times its present size.

In case it is decided to add to the present edifice, a lot next door, having a 50 foot frontage on Solano Ave. and 75 feet on Kaines Ave., Albany, now used for a basketball field, is available, Coble stated.

The local management has already conferred with John Ogg of the National Y Building and Furnishing Bureau, and floor plans of the present building have been sent back to headquarters in New York for consideration in making preparations for expansion.

According to Coble, interest in the Albany Y Building was first incited by F. E. Sherwood, local contractor, because of his son's fondness for basketball and the fact that there was no suitable place to indulge in the sport.

On Christmas Eve of 1930 a little band of men, including Sherwood, Al Hill, Al Severy, L. F. MacDonald, O. Zimmerman, L. Marquardson and C. E. Morris turned the first spadeful of earth for the building that was later to become a focal point for community gatherings.

To celebrate that occasion, open house will be held during the Spring at which the founders and charter members will be feted.

Prior to the building's erection the Albany Y was located on Solano Ave. near San Pablo Ave., where a radio shop now stands. The late Hollis R. Thompson later to become city manager for Berkeley, then served as part time secretary for the Albany and West Berkeley Y's.

Sherwood drew up the plans and submitted them to the Berkeley Y Board of directors. The estimated cost of $5,000—then a small fortune—almost proved an insuperable handicap but due to the unstinting efforts of Sherwood, MacDonald and Zimmerman, a public spirited group of Albany citizens and firms agreed to underwrite the amount.

Morris served as the first secretary in the new building and was succeeded by F. F. Foster and Coble, who arrived three years ago. At that time there were less than 100 club members and no adult building members. The number has now increased to 231 building members while club members has reached the total of 574.

CHEST IN 23d ANNUAL MEETING

The twenty-third annual meeting of the Berkeley-Albany Kensington Community Chest will be held at a dinner in the social hall of the First Congregational Church on the evening of Tuesday, January 22 it was announced today by G. Clifford Pettygrove, Chest president.

Pettygrove invited all interested citizens to save the date for this interesting and instructive occasion and suggested that organizations not schedule affairs which would interfere with attendance by their members. Further details regarding dinner reservations will be released soon, he stated.

"The annual meeting brings together official representatives of community organizations such as service clubs, churches, P.T.A.'s, social clubs, welfare agencies, business organizations, lodges, and others," Pettygrove stated. "These representatives constitute the General Council of the Chest and elect the Board of Directors which governs the affairs of the Chest."

Members of the committee on plans for the meeting are, Chairman Alfred E. Maffly, Mrs. A. W. Rushforth, Mrs. T. L. Prentiss, Miss Marion Fuller, Rabbi Joseph Gitin, Clermont Loper, Victor Lindblad and executive secretary Robert R. Porter.

EAGLES SPONSOR '46 BALL

What promises to be one of the outstanding New Year's Eve attractions for this vicinity will be the big carnival ball sponsored by Bayview Aerie 2323 F.O.E. of Albany. This gala affair will be held New Year's Eve at the Veteran's Memorial Hall on Stockton Street at Kearney in El Cerrito.

This dance will feature free hats and horns, given out at the door, and in addition, a $25.00 Victory Bond will be given free at a drawing to be held at intermission time at the dance. Plenty of refreshments will be on sale at a nominal cost and all proceeds of this event will go into the Aerie Building fund which is to defray the expense of the erection of a new Aerie hall to be erected in the near future at the corner of Evelyn and Solano Avenues in Albany.

A large crowd of Eagles and their friends is expected to attend this big affair and the ticket sale is going great guns at press time. Those attending are urged to note the change in the locale of this dance. Formerly the dances were held at Hermann Son's Hall in West Berkeley, but for this dance the location was changed, owing to a much larger crowd being anticipated.

The committee for this affair is composed of the following Bayview Aerie Eagles who have left nothing undone to assure all attending a very nice evening in which to greet the New Year: George McConnell, John McDermott, Charlie Woodstock, Leo Tscharner, Winthrop Ferguson, Don Erwin, Harry Askew, L. W. Allen, Matt Zack, Karl Isakson, and Harold Brothers, chairman. The committee on refreshments is headed by Louie Torchio with Ed Sulpizio, Ken Michaelson and Joe Allington assisting him.

This dance promises to be the largest yet sponsored by the Albany Eagles and a good time is assured all who attend and expect to whoop the old year out and the new year in with hats and horns and in a truly holiday spirit.

Pearson Family Lucky Winners Of Yule Bicycle

It was a happy Christmas for the Pearson family of Albany for they were the lucky winner of the bicycle given away by Henry S. Villa of the Firestone Home & Auto Supply Co., in conjunction with the Albany theater.

Henry Villa reports the 1 cent sale designed to clear out all the toys in the store by Christmas was a huge success and the crowds swarmed all over the place to see who would prove the lucky owner of the bicycle at the drawing held on Saturday afternoon.

Ed Howell Plays Santa Claus at Pre-School Party

The Albany Pre-School had their Christmas party on Friday morning, with Ed Howell, superintendent of the Albany Recreation Department, playing the role of Santa Claus. He presented each child with a gift. Mrs. L. B. Shock, and Mrs. M. C. Heinkel were in charge of the arrangements for the party.

A table lamp was presented to Mrs. N. Curran (the children's teacher) for Christmas.

The school will re-open on Wednesday, Jan. 2.

Granddaughter Visits Mrs. C. Miller

Sharon Wendy Rashall, granddaughter of Mrs. S. Weiss, of Utica, New York, spent the holidays with her great aunt Mrs. C. Miller, 1124 Portland Ave.

CD GROUP TO WORK OUT DISASTER PLANS

Sometime after the first of the year Sgt. A. K. Smith of the Albany Police Department, who acted as director of Civilian Defense during the war, will call a special session for organizing a disaster group to cope with earthquakes, floods or fires, he announced today.

All civilian defense workers who rallied to his call during the war—an average of 1,700 have already been contacted and requested to join the new organization.

Most of the old pumps and other paraphernalia have been collected, save that retained by souvenir collectors, and is now stored in an auxiliary fire house under the jurisdiction of U. R. Grey, city engineer, who will return it to "Uncle Sam." Smith is hoping that the two auxiliary fire houses that served as headquarters at Memorial and Terrace Parks can be used for the Disaster Group.

S. P. Passenger Haul Hits Peak As '45 Closes

Getting the boys back home has developed the biggest railroad passenger job in history and as 1945 draws to a close Southern Pacific's passenger traffic is running about six times the pre-war passenger miles, President A. T. Mercier said today in his year-end comment on the company's activities.

"Until the homecoming movement of veterans is completed," he declared, "it will continue to have first attention."

While freight traffic eased off with the decline in military shipments, Southern Pacific has been carrying more Army and Navy personnel since V-J Day than at any time during the actual conflict. Exceeding official estimates furnished the carriers, the return of service men grew in volume through October and November and built up to a peak in December. Without having been able to build any new passenger cars since before the war due to lack of priorities, and having received only about 1200 troop sleepers from the government, the railroads have been called upon to handle about 95 per cent of all organized troop movements.

Southern Pacific's manpower shortage continues, it was stated. More than 5,000 men are now needed on the company's Pacific Lines alone.

Hospital Trays Gay With Spirit Of Christmas Time

From the time patients at the Albany Hospital received their breakfast tray brightened by an illuminated Santa Claus candle and 10-inch Christmas tree until they are brought their dinner tray decked with pine cones, they were well aware of the fact that Christmas had come.

Miss Bernice Cook, supervisor on the surgical floor, was in charge of Christmas decorations, during the absence of the owners, Mr. and Mrs. George Loos, vacationing in Los Angeles.

Menu for the main meal of the day, prepared by Mrs. Elsie Price, the chef, consisted of roast turkey dressing, cranberry sauce, buttered peas, candied yams, hot baking powder biscuits, hearts of celery, black olives, plum pudding with hard sauce and coffee. The evening meal was accompanied by a large wedge of mince pie.

Use Christmas Seals Throughout Holidays

"Tuberculosis kills three times as many unskilled laborers as skilled workmen and seven times as many unskilled workers die of tuberculosis as do professional people."

This was the statement made today by Mrs. Helen B. Trowbridge, President of the Alameda County Tuberculosis and Health Association.

Mrs. Trowbridge urged the residents of Alameda County to use Christmas Seals throughout the holiday season and stated that it isn't too late to send in contributions for the Christmas Seal Sale.
